MLS Rules & Citation Policy

Spokane Association of REALTORS®

Spokane Association of REALTORS® MLS RULES AND CITATION POLICY

To ensure the integrity of the MLS and the MLS database, SAR has established this MLS Citation Policy in accordance with Section 9 of the MLS Rules and Regulations. This policy is not all-inclusive, may not reflect Violations of the Code of Ethics, and does not replace Professional Standards Enforcement. Fines will be issued in accordance with this Rules and Citation Policy, subject to change by SAR.

Identifying Violations

Alleged violations of the MLS Rules and Regulations must be made in writing and may be initiated by:

1. Participants or subscribers; and
2. MLS Steering Committee acting on behalf of the membership.

Participants/Subscribers may report violations by:

1. Correction link on Paragon for Tier 1 Violations;
2. Submitting a complaint in writing to the MLS Steering Committee for Tier 2 Violations.
 - Violation reports must be in writing, dated, signed, and include the following information:
 - ✓ Name and office of the alleged Violator
 - ✓ Property Address
 - ✓ MLS Number
 - ✓ Nature of the Violation (specific facts and clear statement of rule or policy violated)
 - ✓ Name and contact information of reporting person (will remain confidential)

Notice of Violation and Fines

Upon discovering a Violation or receiving a report of a Violation, the MLS will send a written Notice of Violation and Fines to the Violator and, if the Violator is a Subscriber, a copy of the Notice of Violation and Fines to the Participant.

Correction of Violation

All noticed Violations must be corrected and written confirmation of the correction must be delivered to the MLS Administrator within the Correction Period. A Violator who is unable to correct the Violation during the Correction Period may verbally request the Participant or the SAR Office make the correction to the listing and provide the MLS a written permission statement by the next business day.

Additional Fine Periods

Failure to correct a noticed Violation within the Correction Period results in assessment of a fine as if a second Violation. Failure to correct a noticed Violation within the Additional Fine Periods will result in assessment of fines as if a third and subsequent Violation. Additional Fine Period fines are assessed for each Additional Fine Period until the Violation is corrected or the maximum fine is reached (see Fine Schedule)

Tiered Violations and Escalating Fine Levels

There are three tiers of Violations with corresponding fine levels based on the type of rule violated and the impact or potential harm the Violation causes. Fines are assessed and escalate based on the tier level, the number of Additional Fine Periods before the Violation is corrected, and the number of Violations noticed to the Violator within the Tracking Period (see Fine Schedule). Fines are the responsibility of the Violator. Fines are due within twenty (20) calendar days of billing.

Suspension of MLS Privileges

Failure to pay assessed fines may result in suspension of MLS privileges pursuant to the MLS Rules and Regulations, Section 7.1. If the maximum accumulated fine amount has been assessed and the Violation has not been corrected, the Violator's MLS privileges may be suspended for no less than thirty (30) days and up to one (1) year if the Violation remains uncorrected and accumulated fines have not been paid.

SAR Listing Deletion

SAR reserves the right, but is not obligated, to delete a listing that contains a Violation if a Notice of Violation and Fines is given and correction is not made within the Correction Period.

Twelve Month Tracking Period

Violations are tracked on a 12-month basis, commencing on the Receipt Date of the Violator's first Notice of Violation and Fines and ending on the last day of the twelfth month thereafter ("Tracking Period"). The Violation count is reset to zero (0) on the anniversary of the Violator's first Notice of Violation and Fines.

Multiple Violations in a Listing

A listing containing more than one Violation on the same day is treated as a single Violation, regardless of the category or nature of the Violation, and is subject to the fine applicable to the highest or most severe Violation.

The following reports of violations of the MLS Rules and Regulations must be corrected by the next business day of receipt of Notice of Violation and Fines:

Appeals and Hearing Options

If the participant refuses to accept any sanction or discipline proposed, the circumstances and the discipline proposed shall be appealed to the Board of Directors of the Association which shall, if it deems the finding of violation proper and the sanction appropriate to the offense, delay the effective date of sanction until final entry by a court of competent jurisdiction in a suit filed by the Association for declaratory relief, except in those states where declaratory relief is not available, declaring that the disciplinary action and proposed sanction violates no rights of the MLS Participant. If the MLS Steering Committee has a procedure established to conduct hearings, the decision of the MLS Steering Committee may be appealed to the Board of Directors of the Association.

Alleged violations of the Code of Ethics or the Standards of Conduct for MLS Participants shall be referred to the Association's Grievance Committee for processing in accordance with the professional standards procedures of the Association.
