

ARCHAEOLOGICAL & HISTORIC PRESERVATION SITE
DISCLOSURE ADDENDUM

The following is part of the Purchase and Sale Agreement dated _____ between _____ (“Buyer”) and _____ (“Seller”) concerning _____ (the “Property”).

_____ (initials) Buyer has been provided with a copy of the “Archaeological Sites, Districts & Cemeteries Per County” map regarding the possibility that Archaeological Site(s) may exist on the Property pursuant to the WA State Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP) data base.

_____ (initials) Seller IS NOT AWARE of Archaeological Site(s) on the Property.

_____ (initials) Seller IS AWARE of Archaeological Site(s) on the Property (See Below).

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES:

Pursuant to RCW 42.56.300, Seller is not allowed to disclose the location of the archaeological site(s) or other details. Seller can only refer any Buyer to Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP) for further information.

Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP)
P.O. Box 48343
Olympia, WA 98504-8343
(360)586-3081

An “archaeological site” is defined in RCW 27.53.030.

Buyer holds the Seller, all real estate agents, and the closing agent harmless from any damage(s) or liability that may arise from the location or existence of any archaeological site(s) on the Property.

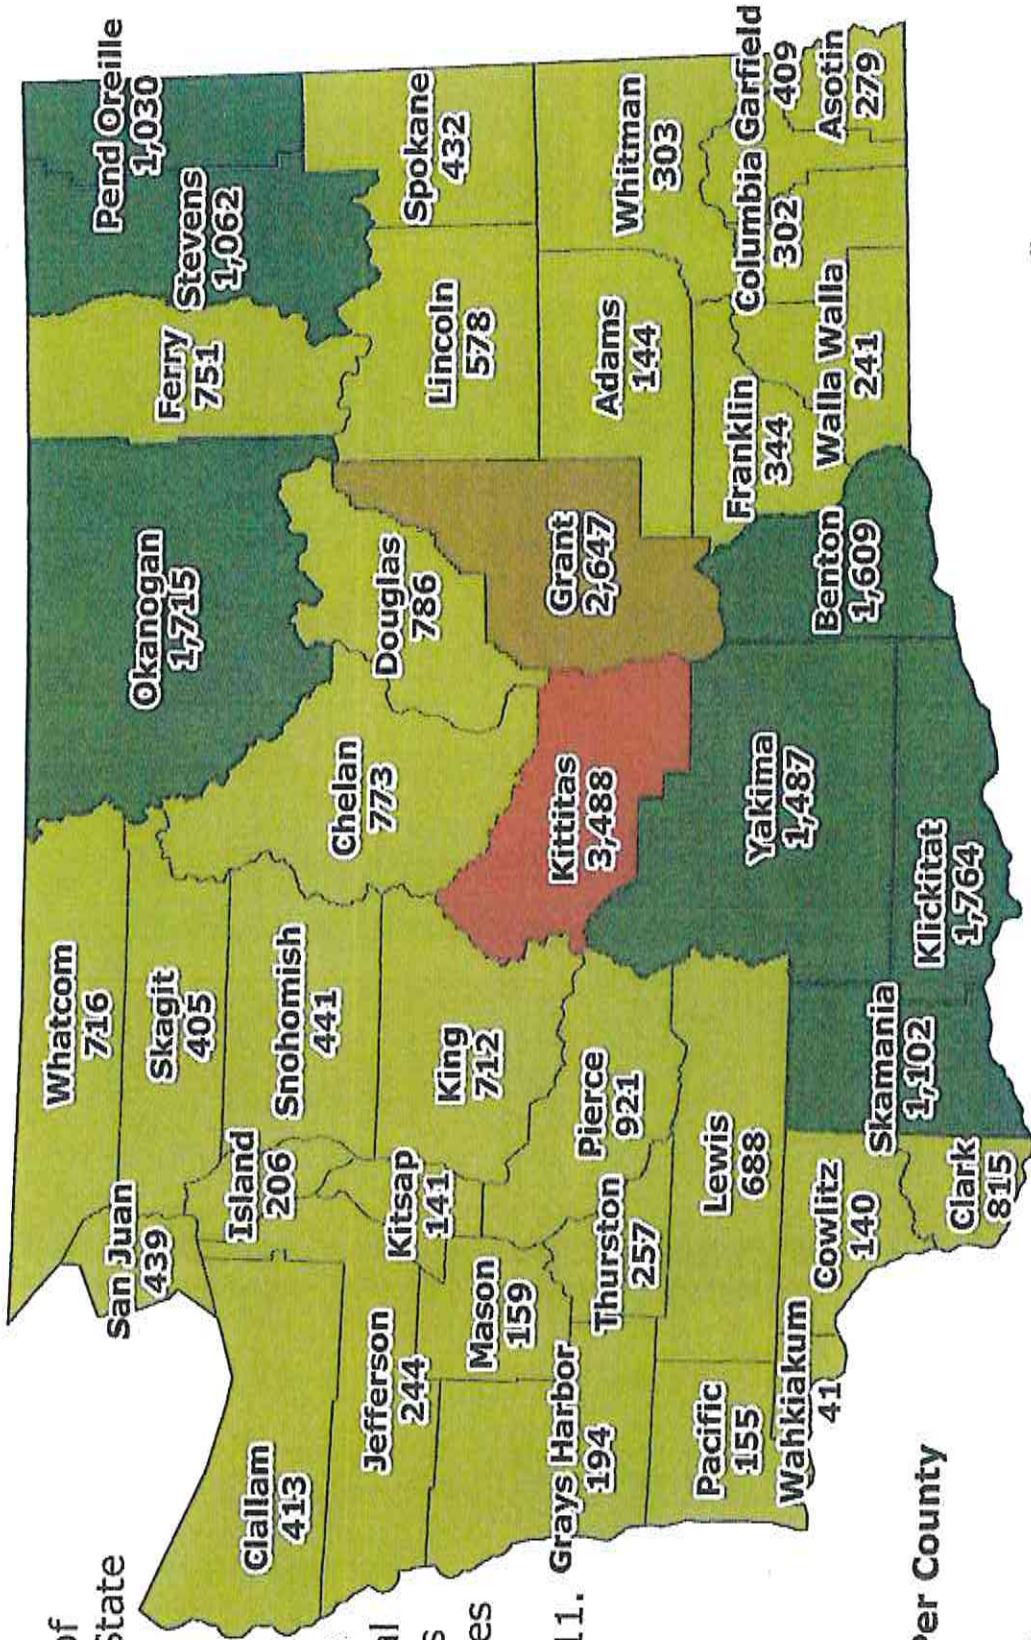

Seller’s Signature

Buyer’s Signature

Archaeological Sites, Districts & Cemeteries Per County

0.00024% of Washington State has been inventoried.

There have been 28,333 archaeological sites, districts and cemeteries inventoried as of July 2011.

Inventories Per County

- 0
- 1 - 999
- 1,000 - 1,999
- 2,000 - 2,999
- 3,000 - 3,488

1063 South Capitol Way, PO BOX 48343
Olympia Washington 98504-8343
Phone 360-586-3081 Fax 360-586-3067
www.dahp.wa.gov

Map Created July 2011